Impossibly Possible “Peace Made Possible” 11:15—November 30, 2025

Luke 1:5-25 describes the miraculous announcement of John the Baptizer’s birth to Zechariah and Elizabeth, an elderly and childless couple. This event, signifying God’s faithfulness and power to act in unexpected ways, foreshadows the even greater miracle of Jesus’s birth and the availability of peace with God through him.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

P: Let us pray. Oh Lord, we live in a world marred by conflicts within our hearts and minds and within our communities and world. As humans, we often struggle in vain to find peace and reconciliation. We look to you, Father, knowing that all things are possible with you. Bring peace to our hearts as we worship you this day. Guide our thoughts and actions and make us your instruments of peace in the world. We pray this in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

C: For nothing will be impossible with God.

INTRODUCTION TO THE READING

READING Isaiah 26:7-13

A: The reading according to Isaiah, the twenty-sixth chapter.

⁷ The way of the righteous is level; O Just One, you make smooth the path of the righteous. ⁸ In the path of your judgments, O LORD, we wait for you; your name and your renown are the soul’s desire. ⁹ My soul yearns for you in the night, my spirit within me earnestly seeks you. For when your judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness. ¹⁰ If favor is shown to the wicked, they do not learn righteousness; in the land of uprightness they deal perversely and do not see the majesty of the LORD. ¹¹ O LORD, your hand is lifted up, but they do not see it. Let them see your zeal for your people, and be ashamed. Let the fire for your adversaries consume them. ¹² O LORD, you will ordain peace for us, for indeed, all that we have done, you have done for us. ¹³ O LORD our God, other lords besides you have ruled over us, but we acknowledge your name alone.

A: The word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL

Luke 1:5-25

P: The Holy Gospel according to St. Luke, the first chapter.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

⁵ In the days of King Herod of Judea, there was a priest named Zechariah, who belonged to the priestly order of Abijah. His wife was a descendant of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth. ⁶ Both of them were righteous before God, living blamelessly according to all the commandments and regulations of the Lord. ⁷ But they had no children, because Elizabeth was barren, and both were getting on in years. ⁸ Once when he was serving as priest before God and his section was on duty, ⁹ he was chosen by lot, according to the custom of the priesthood, to enter the sanctuary of the Lord and offer incense. ¹⁰ Now at the time of the incense offering, the whole assembly of the people was praying outside. ¹¹ Then there appeared to him an angel of the Lord, standing at the right side of the altar of incense. ¹² When Zechariah saw him, he was terrified; and fear overwhelmed him. ¹³ But the angel said to him, "Do not be afraid, Zechariah, for your prayer has been heard. Your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you will name him John. ¹⁴ You will have joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth, ¹⁵ for he will be great in the sight of the Lord. He must never drink wine or strong drink; even before his birth he will be filled with the Holy Spirit. ¹⁶ He will turn many of the people of Israel to the Lord their God. ¹⁷ With the spirit and power of Elijah he will go before him, to turn the hearts of parents to their children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the righteous, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord." ¹⁸ Zechariah said to the angel, "How will I know that this is so? For I am an old man, and my wife is getting on in years." ¹⁹ The angel replied, "I am Gabriel. I stand in the presence of God, and I have been sent to speak to you and to bring you this good news. ²⁰ But now, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their time, you will become mute, unable to speak, until the day these things occur." ²¹ Meanwhile the people were waiting for Zechariah, and wondered at his delay in the sanctuary. ²² When he did come out, he could not speak to them, and they realized that he had seen a vision in the sanctuary. He kept motioning to them and remained unable to speak. ²³ When his time of service was ended, he went to his home. ²⁴ After those days his wife Elizabeth conceived, and for five months she remained in seclusion. She said, ²⁵ "This is what the Lord has done for me when he looked favorably on me and took away the disgrace I have endured among my people."

P: The Gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to you, O Christ.

PRAYERS OF THE CHURCH

Tom Ingram

A: In our waiting and watching, we come to you in prayer, O God, trusting your promise to renew the church, the nations, and the whole creation.

A brief silence.

A: God of the people, we come seeking wisdom and instruction. Uphold and strengthen lay leaders, teachers, deacons, pastors, and bishops. Teach us your ways and lead us in your paths. God of grace,

C: hear our prayer.

A: God of the earth, we seek your goodness in the grandeur of creation. Empower us to care for forests and oceans, as we see you in the world around us. God of grace,

C: hear our prayer.

A: God of the nations, grant wisdom to leaders, judges, and mediators. Cast out words of hate and transform them into words for building up community. Remake implements of war to sow peace. God of grace,

C: hear our prayer.

A: God of healing, bring comfort and strength. We pray for our kindred and companions who are ill or despairing (especially those we now name aloud or in the quiet of our hearts). Surround all with care and consolation. God of grace,

C: hear our prayer.

A: God of new possibilities, when addiction wounds, jealousy tears down, and relationships fray, show us how to journey with one another. Nurture therapists, counselors, and sponsors in their care for others. God of grace,

C: hear our prayer.

A: God of all time, build up our lives that we would reflect your grace. At the last, bring us to your holy city where peace and goodness make a home with all the saints (especially those we now name aloud or in the quiet of our hearts). God of grace,

C: hear our prayer.

A: God of possibilities, as the Call Committee continues to recruit and engage with pastoral candidates, we pray for clarity of vision, unity of Spirit, and a clear pathway to the additional pastor you have chosen for Beautiful Savior. God of grace,

C: hear our prayer.

A: Draw near to us, O God, as we commend all for whom we pray, trusting in your mercy through Jesus Christ, Emmanuel.

C: Amen.

OFFERING PRAYER

THANKSGIVING AT THE TABLE

LORD'S PRAYER – sung to the tune of Away in a Manger

Our Father in heaven, all praise to your name!
Your kingdom among us, your will done the same;
by mortals and angels, come, Lord, reign alone;
oh hear us and bless us from heaven's high throne.

The bread that we yearn for provide us each day;
as we forgive others, our sins take away;
in times of temptation, to lead us be near;
from evil deliver your children most dear.

For yours is the kingdom; o'er all things you reign.
And yours is the power; all things you maintain.
To you be the glory, resounding again,
From all of creation, forever. Amen.
